THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 19, 1891.
Mrs. Garfield is considerably better.
The president yesterday announced that he had about two hundred more nominations to send to the senate.
CONFIRMATION.
The nomination of Wm. H. Robert for the post of New York is being considered by the senate yesterday. It is to be hoped that this nomination will be confirmed to give the country a man of public opinion.
It is not likely that the question of confirmation will receive much attention in the legislature during the few days that remain before adjournment, and unless Gov. Callahan takes the time to call an extra session the city of Springfield will have the extreme pleasure of entertaining the members of the general assembly again next winter. In the meantime the present members of congress and their friends are looking to the capital, in order to extract what they believe to be the greatest amount of money from the treasury in the plan of appropriation reported by the committee, and when they succeed—as the Danville people did the other day, in getting Cumberland county chopped off from their proposed district—they go home thoroughly impressed with the idea that they have things fixed. All these efforts just now are only so much labor lost, for months will elapse before the real work of appropriation is done, and scores of states will be made and unmade before the end comes. Therefore we are not in the least disturbed by the state fixed up by the Springfield Journal which places us in a Democratic district, composed of the counties of Tazewell, Boone, DeWitt, Macon and Sangamon. That state will be amended in the next few days.
The young star is quoted as saying recently: "I don't expect to be alive five weeks hence."
On the eight men who ran on the four Presidential tickets of 1860 only one is alive to-day—Abraham Lincoln.
YANKEE ingenuity in asserting itself in strange ways. Recently says that Americans lead the world as violin makers, and he declared that he has played on an Ohio fiddle four days old that was better than his Stradivari.
Mr. Truman who has been some time in Washington, has very wisely been acting the part of a peace-maker in the Republican household. He is of the opinion that mistakes have been made on both sides, and we are of the opinion that the country is quite prepared to consider in this view of the case. Mr. Storrs hopefully believes, however, that the mistakes that have been committed are not irretrievable, which is an encouraging intimation yet the probability is that it will take some time to cool the anger that has been needlessly engendered by hot and injudicious parties on both sides of the house.
Criticisms on plain old fashioned love and only laughs at locksmiths, but have been with established institutions as well as with susceptible hearts. It is the pivotal point on which the world revolves socially, morally, and to a great extent, financially. When in full panoply the mischievous god is as great an iconoclast as Father Time himself, and shatters every image suggestive of antiquity to his supremacy. The famous Shaker settlement at Enfield, N. H., is on the verge of dissolution. Elder Henry Cummings, who for twenty years has been the recognized head of the family, has become convinced that the ideas on which Shakerism is founded are wrong and will shortly go out into the world. He will take with him one of the leading sisters who will also leave and become Mrs. Cummings. Thus doth the little victorious god shake the Shakers and dangle fresh souls from his girdle.
You will admire those comfortable slippers at J. W. Baker's.

DEATH OF UNCLE BILLY YOUNG.

The "Hero of Three Wars" Called to His Eternal Home.

In our issue of last evening we gave a full account of the destruction by fire of Uncle Billy Young's one-story frame dwelling, two miles northwest of the city, on Tuesday evening last. Mr. Young, who was in an unconscious condition and has been in bed sick since the second week in last January, was rescued from the burning building by being pulled out on the bed clothing, and after resting for a short time in a small abode near by, was borne to a dwelling 60 yards distant, occupied by John Piper and family.

This morning at 6:15 o'clock, Mr. Young, who still remained unconscious and unable to realize that there had been a fire, or to recognize those about him, died in the presence of his adopted children and relations, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Carrier and Billy Shoemaker.

WILLIAM YOUNG, who was known to thousands of old soldiers in all parts of the country as the "Hero of Three Wars," was born in Carlisle, Cumberland county, Penn., March 4th, 1800, and was in the 82d year of his age at the time of his death. He served 60 days as a drummer boy in the war of 1812, when he was about 14 years of age. He came west and lived in Ohio for a number of years, and as a member of an Indiana regiment he served for a time as soldier in the Mexican war, in 1846-47. He resided in Decatur for a number of years previous to 1861, and on Aug. 6, 1862, he was mustered into the service as private soldier in Co. K, 116th Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and served in the late Rebellion as a teamster, but was home sick when the regiment was mustered out of the service on June 7, 1865. The deceased was in remarkably good health for a man of his advanced years up to last December when he began to fail, and a few weeks later was compelled to seek his bed, being troubled with an abscess in his head and other afflictions which visit elderly people. Mr. Young's wife died in the 64th year of her age on December 26th, 1876, and her body was interred in Boiling Springs Cemetery. No children were born to the couple, and they had no relatives, excepting a cousin of the old hero, who lives in New Orleans, and a few relatives of the dead wife who live in Ohio. Mr. Young was the beneficiary of a pension as a veteran of the war of 1812, and received $5 per month.

Three weeks ago, before he lost consciousness, he called Mr. Carrier to his bedside and told him to go to town and tell John R. Miller and Captain Durfee that his house had burned down and that he was helpless. It was a strange request but Mr. Carrier came to the city and then went back and told the aged sufferer that he had done as he was bidden. Since that time no reference was made to the matter, and when the fire did come, his condition was such that he knew nothing of it.

The deceased was a very companionable gentleman, and was in his element when among old soldiers, particularly on reunion days at home and abroad.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. It will be in charge of the Macon County Veteran Association, of which organization the deceased was a member. The body will be interred at Boiling Springs Cemetery. Services at the house.

A Long Family.

We have before us a neatly printed pamphlet of 24 pages, which gives the ancestors and descendants of White Brown, who was born in Dorchester county, Maryland, in 1749. He was the father of Mr. Francis A. Brown, of Blue Mound township, the compiler of the pamphlet, who is now in the 77th year of his age, and is apparently as well and hearty as he was at 60. The number of White Brown's children is 13; grand children, 102; great grand children, 329; total 444. Six pages of the pamphlet are devoted to a well-written memoir of the venerable White Brown, a lay pioneer and patriarch of the Scioto Valley, from the pen of James Quinn.

DRY GOODS, OIL CLOTHS, WINDOW CURTAINS, MATTINGS, WALL-PAPER, CARPETS, &c.

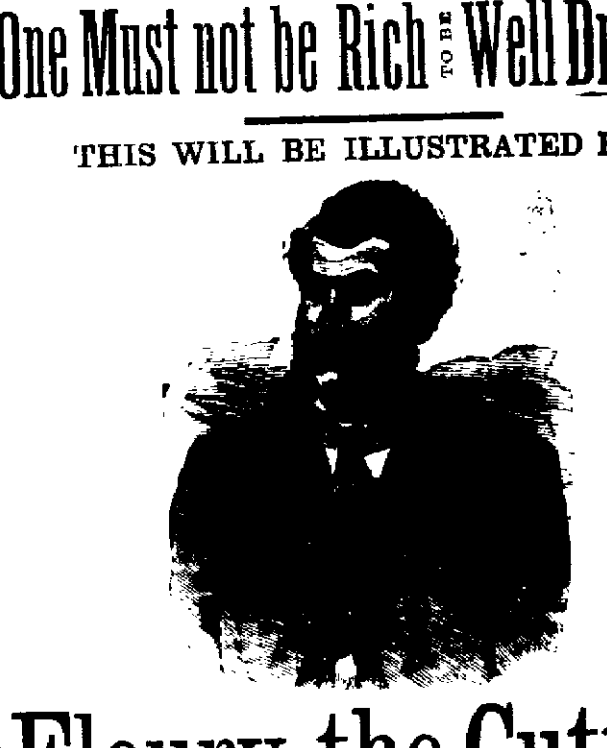

A better or larger assortment of DRY GOODS and CARPETS adapted to the wants of this community cannot be found anywhere else, and as we buy in Large Quantities, and chiefly of the Importers and Manufacturers, and as our Sales exceed that of any other House in the United States according to population, which requires a very small per cent. on the amount of our sales to pay our expenses, it will not be taxing the credulity of the people too much when we claim that no House in Chicago or St. Louis, much less in Decatur, can compete with us in LOW PRICES, because the expenses of the former, according to sales, double that of ours; while the pretensions of the latter—at least those who pretend to be "Leaders" and "Importers" and buyers for cash—presume greatly on the ignorance of the public, when they try to set themselves up as competitors. We know how to buy goods, where to buy them, and what will sell them.
